

Skip Murray

Formerly an executive with a large publishing company Skip has been teaching and coaching for more than 35 years. In the late 60's and early 70's Skip was a public school teacher and head wrestling coach. Although he never wrestled he had numerous State Champs as well as a State Championship Team in 1976. In 1990 Skip started Murray Associates in Columbus, Ohio. Today Murray Associates is a recognized performance company developing sales and leadership skills for many local and national companies. Skip's favorite expression: "Passionate People love what they do and never give up". Skip says that his passion for developing individuals propels him every day. Skip and his wife Linda reside in Dublin, Ohio.